RE: Doggett for U.S. Congress Committee
Identification No. C00286500
Correction to 30-Day Post-General Report (10/19/00-11/27/00) and 2000 Year End Report (11/28/00-12/31/00)

Dear Mr. Ragan:

On March 7, 2001, you wrote to me advising that an itemized disbursement in the Committee's most recent 30-Day Post-General Election Report appeared to exceed the legal maximum for a contribution. As you suggested in your correspondence, that disbursement was not a contribution, and should have been labeled as a "transfer of excess funds" to the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee.

The first attachment to this letter is an amendment to the 30-day Post-General Report which properly describes the purpose of that disbursement. Also included with the amended report, for purposes of reference, is a copy of the page which erroneously described this disbursement as a "contribution" in the earlier report.

I also enclose an amendment to the 2000 Year End Report the Committee filed in January 2001. The correction, which is also reflected on the Detailed Summary Page, corrects an earlier report disclosing itemized receipts. The original report for receipt of "interest and dividends" from Pershing reflected a total of $9,626.11. That amount reflected a one month total, which was erroneously entered in place of the year end total. The correct total, $92,765.92, is shown on the correction page in the amended report. The original page is also included for purposes of reference.
